

QuickLook

KIDCITY INTERSECTION LEADER

Description: Build relationships and play games with kids in a fun, interactive environment while their parents serve.

Serving Frequency: every week or every-other-week

Time Commitment: two hours/week

Always

- Arrive thirty minutes prior to service.
- Participate and be engaged with kids during free play time.
- Keep an accurate account of how many children are present in the classroom.
- Be aware of food allergies as food is served in this classroom.
- Encourage positive interactions between children as they play games together.
- Complete the KidCity volunteer application and background check.
- Have KidCity volunteer identification visible at all times.
- Communicate with coordinator regarding absences.

Sometimes

- Lead children to participate in serving opportunities.
- Provide opportunities for older elementary kids to lead the younger children in theme-based activities.
- Incorporate appropriate behavior management strategies to keep kids engaged in positive play..
- Assist with classroom duties as assigned by a classroom coach/coordinator.
- Attend KidCity training events.

Never

- Belittle a child as a means of discipline.
- Be alone with a child.
- Allow children to utilize their own media devices during their time in Intersection.
- Release a child to anyone who does not possess an identification that matches the child's KidCity name tag.
- Be distracted or disengaged.

