LEADER Bible Study

Though King Saul was an adversary to David, Saul's son Jonathan loved him like a brother. (See 1 Sam. 18:1) Before David fled from King Saul and journeyed toward Moab, Jonathan appealed to his friend David, "If I continue to live, show me kindness from the LORD, but if I die, don't ever withdraw your kindness from my household" (1 Sam. 20:14-15a).

Following the deaths of King Saul and his son Jonathan, David was made king over Israel. The Lord was with David, and he experienced numerous military victories. David remembered the promise he made to his best friend Jonathan and was determined to keep it.

David asked a servant of Saul's family if anyone remained from Saul's family. The servant mentioned Jonathan's son. Jonathan's son Mephibosheth (meh FIB oh sheth) had been injured when he was five years old, so his feet were crippled. (2 Sam. 4:4) David brought Mephibosheth to his house. Mephibosheth fell facedown before David. As a descendant of Saul, he was right to fear the king. But David said, "Don't be afraid."

David showed kindness to Mephibosheth, promising to restore to him all of Saul's fields. He appointed servants to work the fields. The fields would provide an income for Mephibosheth. David also announced that Mephibosheth would eat meals at David's table, just like one of the king's sons. So Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem and always ate at the king's table.

As you teach preschoolers the story of David's kindness toward Mephibosheth, go beyond the lesson that we can be kind like David. Highlight King David's surprising and gracious kindness to Mephibosheth. Then point them to Jesus. In a greater way than David, God shows surprising kindness to us. (Eph. 2:7) Because of Jesus, He invites us into His family and gives us life with Him forever.

The BIBLE Story

David's Kindness

2 Samuel 9

David was a good king for God's people. He won battles against his enemies and God helped him do what was fair and right for the Israelites. One day, David thought about King Saul and his family.

David and Saul's son Jonathan had been best friends.

He had promised to be kind to Jonathan's family. David wondered if anyone from that family was still alive.

David said to one of Saul's servants, "I want to show kindness to someone from Saul's family. Is anyone still alive?"

"Yes," said the servant. "Jonathan's son—the one who cannot walk—is still alive."

Jonathan's son was named Mephibosheth (meh FIB oh sheth). David called for him to come to Jerusalem. When Mephibosheth got there, he bowed down before David.

"Mephibosheth!" David said.

"Don't be afraid. I made a promise to your father, Jonathan, and I want to show kindness to you."

David told Mephibosheth what he would do for him. "I will give you all the land that belonged to your grandfather, Saul. And I want you to eat all your meals at my table."

“Why would you show such kindness to someone like me?” Mephibosheth wondered.

David told some servants to take care of the land and farm it for Mephibosheth. From that time on, Mephibosheth lived at the palace and ate his meals at King David’s table as if he were one of King David’s own sons.

Christ Connection: King David showed surprising kindness to Mephibosheth even though he didn’t have to. In a greater way, God shows surprising kindness to us. Because of Jesus, He invites us into His family and gives us life with Him forever.

Play intro music in the background as you greet preschoolers.

Activity page

- "Show Kindness" activity page
- crayons

Invite preschoolers to look at each scene and circle the children showing kindness or draw an X over the children not showing kindness.

Note: The activity page is an optional opening activity. Please send this home with parents to use as a resource during the week.

SAY • God wants us to show kindness to one another because He shows kindness to us. In today's Bible story, we will hear how King David showed surprising kindness to someone from King Saul's family.

Guess emotions

Tell preschoolers you will make a face and they should guess how you are feeling based on your facial expression. Examples of emotions to show on your face are happy, sad, mad, worried, silly, bored, scared, shy, and sleepy. After preschoolers correctly guess an emotion, invite them to show the same emotion.

LOW
PREP

SAY • Friends, you are all very good at guessing emotions. Do you remember the last time you were surprised? What was it that surprised you? In today's Bible story, King David surprised someone by showing kindness to him. Listen to the Bible story to discover who this person was!

Kindness Tasks

Gather the children in the activity area. One at a time, give each child a task to complete that shows kindness through helping. Start each statement with "Could you be kind and go _____?" Task ideas: pick up crayons, tidy up the books, push the chairs in, put away the toys, clean up the play kitchen area, put away the blocks, etc.

Say. Friends, one BIG way we show kindness to others is by helping! I will call out a task and point to a friend. If I point to you, please show us how you might complete the task with kindness. Are you ready? Let's go!

Thanks so much for all your help. That's a BIG way to show kindness. When we remember that Jesus is our friend, He gives us the power to be kind.

Introduce the Bible story

Place a bookmark at 2 Samuel 9 in your Bible. Invite a preschooler to open it. Display the open Bible.

SAY • Today's story is from 2 Samuel in the Old Testament.

Point to the Bible story picture on the giant timeline.

Remind children that all the stories in the Bible fit together to tell an even bigger story about God's love for us.

Watch the Bible story

SAY • David showed kindness to Jonathan's son

Mephibosheth (meh FIB oh sheth). David did not have to show such surprising kindness to Mephibosheth, but he did because he loved his friend Jonathan,

Mephibosheth's father. God shows us even more surprising kindness, and He does it because of His Son, Jesus. When we put our trust in Jesus, God invites us into His family.

Learn the big picture question

SAY • Our big picture question is, How is Jesus the perfect king?

The answer is, Jesus perfectly rules over everything. We see in today's Bible story that King David was a very good king, but David was not perfect! Only Jesus is perfect, and only Jesus is the perfect king.

LOW PREP

Move without your legs

Invite preschoolers to take turns moving from one point of their small group to another without using their legs.

Demonstrate how to crawl across the floor using only your arms to pull yourself across. SAY • God, is so good and wise, and He makes everyone wonderfully different.

Everyone is made in God's image, but no one person is the same as another. Some people are not able to use their legs or walk. Jonathan's son Mephibosheth was one of those people. David showed kindness to Jonathan's son and invited him to join him for dinner as long as he lived.

Show kindness through a card

Invite preschoolers to think of someone they care about, such as a family member or a good friend. Set out construction paper, crayons, and stickers. Guide preschoolers to fold a sheet of construction paper in half and decorate a card for the person they thought of. Offer to write a message on a card if the preschooler wishes. You may also write a message for older preschoolers to copy.

SAY • In today's Bible story, David was thinking of how much he cared about his friend Jonathan. He wanted

- Construction paper
- Crayons
- Stickers

to do something nice for Jonathan's family. David showed kindness to Jonathan's son. We are showing kindness to people we care about today by making them these beautiful cards. Giving this card to someone will let them know we are thinking about them and care about them.
