

Daniel did such a great job of working for King Darius that the king put Daniel in charge of his whole kingdom!

Give two thumbs up while saying,
Great job, Daniel!

The king's officials were angry because King Darius put Daniel in charge. So they tricked the king into making a new rule that said you could only pray to the king.

Make an angry face, like the king's officials.

Daniel was brave, and he only prayed to God as he had always done.

Put your hands together, like you're praying,
and say, I trust you, God.

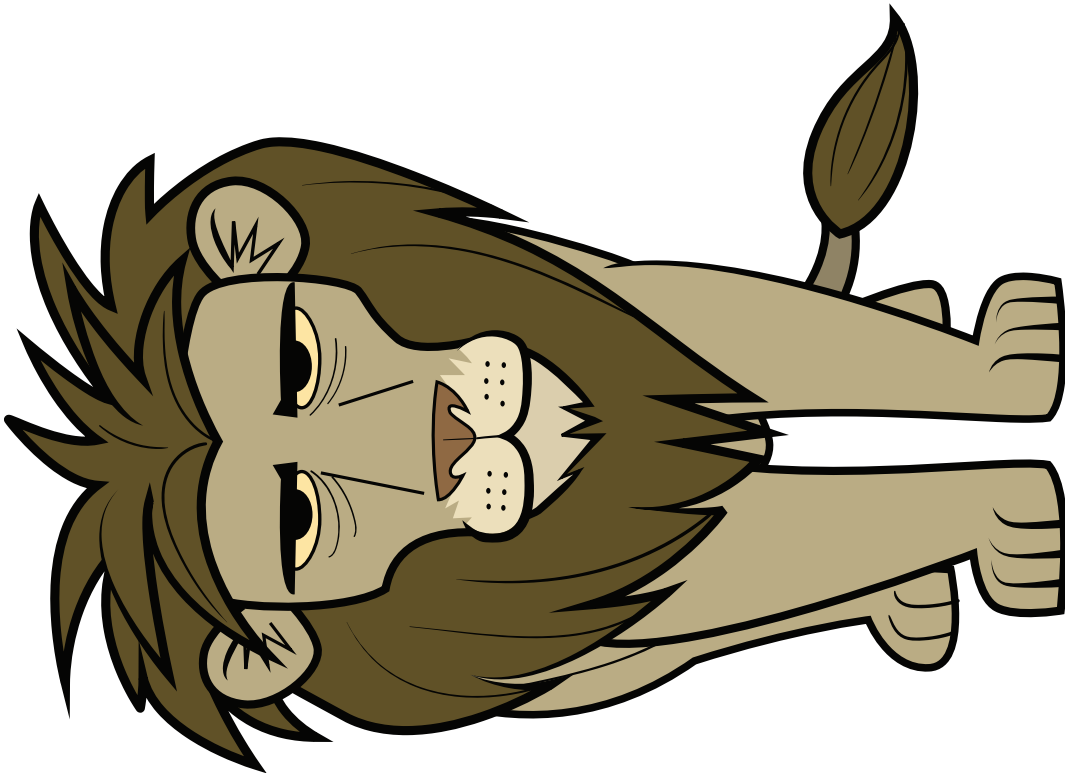

When the king's officials saw Daniel praying to God and not to King Darius, they had Daniel thrown in a big hole with lions!
But God closed the lions' mouths, and they didn't hurt Daniel.

Put your hands on the sides of your face and say,
Oh no!

Make a super kid pose and say,
God can help me be brave!

Roar like a lion!
