DATEABLE THREE: PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

BOTTOM LINE

BECOMING SOMEONE > FINDING SOMEONE

GOAL OF SMALL GROUP

TO ENCOURAGE STUDENTS TO FOCUS MORE ON BECOMING A DATEABLE PERSON THAN FINDING SOMEONE TO DATE.

SCRIPTURE REFERENCES

1 CORINTHIANS 13:4-5

FROM THE TENSION

1. What qualities do you look for in someone you'd like to date?
2. Why do most people think more about finding the right person to date than they think about becoming the right person?

FROM THE TRUTH

3. What's one way a person can be patient when it comes to dating?
4. The Bible says, "Love does not envy." What's the opposite of being an envious person?
5. What are some of the benefits of becoming someone who practices things like patience, kindness, and not being envious?

FROM THE APPLICATION

6. Again, think about some of the qualities you're looking for in the person you date. How can you practice one of those this week?
7. Whether or not you're dating someone, how will your future be impacted if you decide to practice these qualities today?

NEXT STEP

Leaders, encourage your students to write down the qualities they're looking for in the person they want to date. Pray for your group. Ask God to help them become the kind of person who has these qualities.
