

Children Cleaning Up Toys

Friend Hugging and Saying
"I'm sorry I broke your truck"

Friend Sharing a Car

What happened in this picture? (Pause for responses.) Yes, the wheel on the toy truck was broken. What are the two friends doing? (Pause for responses.) Yes, they are hugging. It looks like one friend is saying “I’m sorry I broken your truck, and the other friend is saying “I forgive you.” When Jesus forgave people, He was a bright light showing us how God forgives people. Now we all get to be bright lights. Can you turn to a friend and give them a hug. So good! You are a bright light when you forgive.

What are the children doing in this picture? (Pause for responses.) Yes, they are working together and cleaning up the toys. When Jesus helped people, He was a bright light showing us how God helps people. Now we all get to be bright lights. I have a bin of toys that I’m going to “dump” on the floor. We are going to work together and help clean them up and put them back into the bin. Awesome! You are a bright light when you help.

What are the children doing in this picture? (Pause for responses.) Yes, they are sharing. When Jesus loved people, He was a bright light showing us how God loves people and how we can love people too. We get to be bright lights again. I’m going to give some of you a small toy (pass out a block/car to every other child in your group). Now I want you to turn to a friend that doesn’t have a toy in their hand and say “Here, would you like to play with this [name of toy]?” (Pause for responses.) That was awesome sharing! Now, let’s share again. Turn to another friend that doesn’t have a toy and say “Here is [name of toy], I’m sharing this with you. Great sharing, friends! You are a bright light when you share.
