

WHAT DO YOU LOVE?

Jesus shows us love is worth repeating.

The image shows four smartphone screens arranged horizontally. Each screen displays a worksheet with a question at the top, a play button icon, a short paragraph of text, and a large white rectangular area for writing. The questions are: 1. 'What do you love about God?' with a rose icon. 2. 'What do you love about yourself?' with a pink heart icon. 3. 'What do you love about the other people in your life?' with a group of people icon. 4. 'How can you love people this week?' with a lightbulb icon. The background of the entire image is a soft purple and pink gradient.

What do you love about God?

Think through the parts of your relationship with God you're grateful for, and write some of those attributes here.

What do you love about yourself?

Jesus says to love your neighbor as you love yourself. This means you need to love yourself and mean it. What are a few ways God has made you that you love?

What do you love about the other people in your life?

Write a few things that have been happening in the relationships that you love.

How can you love people this week?

Think about simple ways you can show love to others. Write a few ideas down here:

WHAT DO YOU LOVE?

Jesus shows us love is worth repeating.

This section is a duplicate of the one above, showing four smartphone screens with the same worksheet content: 'WHAT DO YOU LOVE?' title, subtitle 'Jesus shows us love is worth repeating.', and four reflection questions with icons and writing areas.

What do you love about God?

Think through the parts of your relationship with God you're grateful for, and write some of those attributes here.

What do you love about yourself?

Jesus says to love your neighbor as you love yourself. This means you need to love yourself and mean it. What are a few ways God has made you that you love?

What do you love about the other people in your life?

Write a few things that have been happening in the relationships that you love.

How can you love people this week?

Think about simple ways you can show love to others. Write a few ideas down here: