Psalm 31:24 (NIRV)

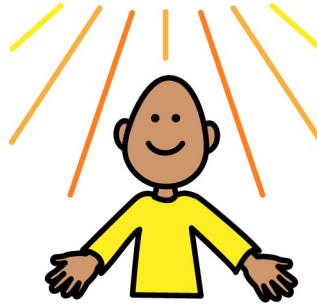

Be strong,

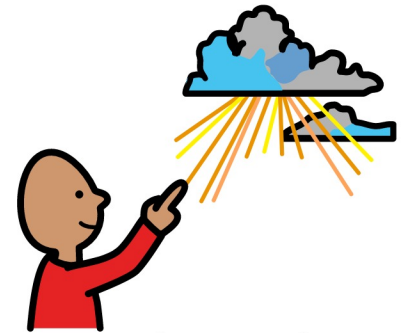

all you

who put your hope in the Lord.

Never

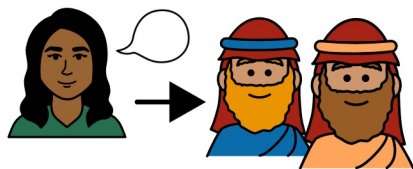

give up.

KC January 26 2025 Pg. 2

Paul and Silas were walking to their place of prayer when a girl said: "These men serve the Most High God. They are telling you how to be saved."

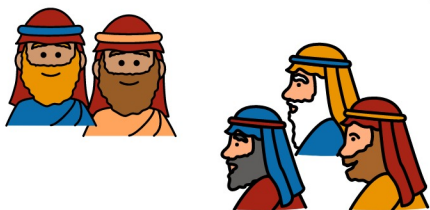

The girl followed Paul and Silas for days. Paul's frustration continued to grow.

Paul said: "In the name of Jesus, I command you to come out of her". Immediately, the spirit left the girl alone.

She was healed!

The men that were taking advantage of the girl were angry and accused Paul and Silas of making trouble.

The city judges called for Paul and Silas to be whipped and thrown in prison.

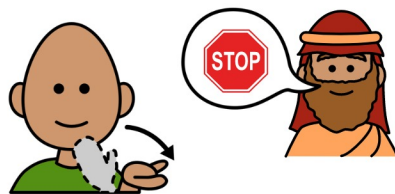

Paul and Silas were chained by their feet. They talked to God and sang loudly.

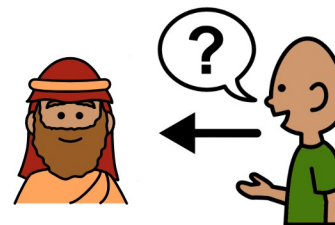

A powerful earthquake shook the prison and the doors were opened.

The jailer was about to harm himself as he thought he would be in trouble for what happened.

Paul stopped him. The jailer thanked Paul and asked him,

"What must I do to be saved?"

Paul said: "Believe in the Lord, Jesus and you and everyone in your house will be saved."

The jailer and his family were saved and baptized.

In the morning, the city judges realized they made a mistake. Paul and Silas were to be released.

Paul and Silas refused to go without an apology.

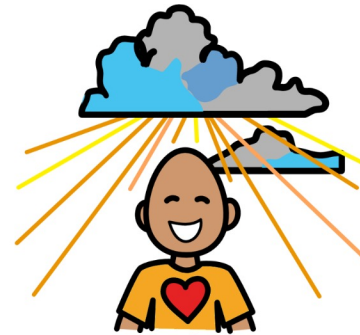

The judges came in person to apologize and lead Paul and Silas out.
