ABOUT THIS WEEK

The stunt teams in movies know how getting the right shot can mean putting themselves into challenging situations over and over. This week, we'll hear Jesus' words to his disciples as he prepared them for a future without his physical presence. Jesus' words can help us stay focused on what's important by reminding us that with God, difficult moments can help

Let's Break the Ice // Discipleship Moment Follow-Up:

- If you were the star in an action movie, do you think you would do your own stunts or would you hire a stunt person to do them?
- Optional: Last week, we talked about overcoming temptation and challenged each other to memorize 1 Corinthians 10:13. Does anyone have it memorized and want to share it? Has it been helpful as you faced temptation this week?

Before We Open Our Bibles:

- What stood out to you from the message this week?
- Have you ever gone through a tough time and, looking back, realized how much you grew from it? How did you see God working in that moment?

Discipleship Moment:

Journaling: Journaling is a spiritual practice that you may have never tried before. By writing down our thoughts and feelings, especially during difficult times, we are forced to slow down, reflect, and truly communicate how we feel in a safe space. This week, take some time to write down by hand how you're feeling about something difficult that you're facing. Imagine you're writing a letter to God and allow yourself to be completely honest.
