Thomas was one of the 12 disciples. He was probably feeling a lot of emotions after Jesus died.

He was probably scared and confused. That's probably because the disciples didn't fully understand God's plan.

Even though, Jesus had explained it to them.

Jesus died on a cross on a Friday and then He was placed in a tomb.

Early Sunday morning, Mary Magdalene discovered that the tomb was empty!

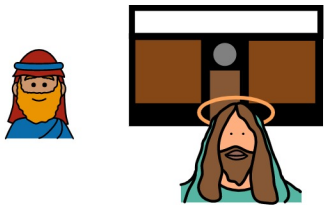

Jesus is alive!!

Mary Magdalene even spoke to Him. Then she rushed back and shared the good news with the other disciples.

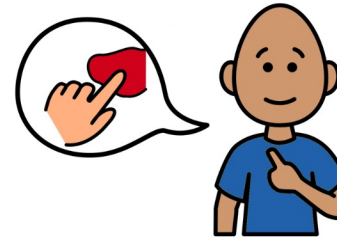

Later that same day, 2 of Jesus' followers were traveling to Emmaus and talking about what had happened. Jesus showed up, walking along with them.

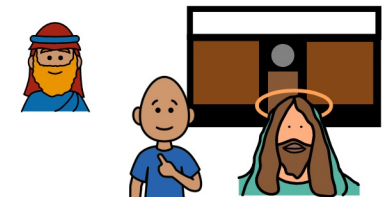

Later that night, Jesus appeared to the disciples inside a locked room. Thomas was not there.

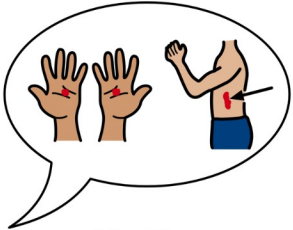

When his friends told Thomas what had happened, he replied: "I must see the nail marks in his hands. I must put my fingers where the nails were.

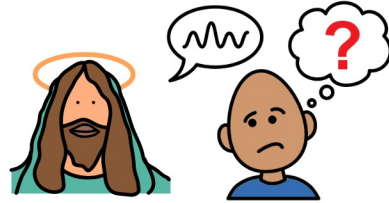

I must put my hand into His side. Only then, will I believe."

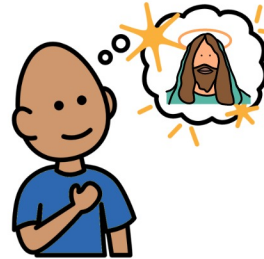

1 week later, the disciples were in that same locked room, when Jesus suddenly appeared amongst them. This time, Thomas was there.

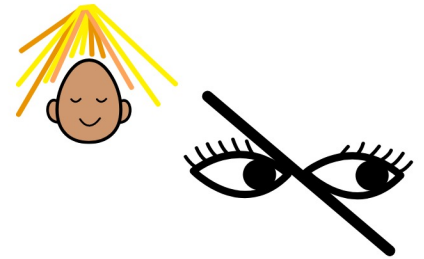

Jesus turned to Thomas and said: "Put your fingers here, see my hands. Reach out your hands and put it into my side.

Stop doubting and believe." Finally, Thomas did believe.

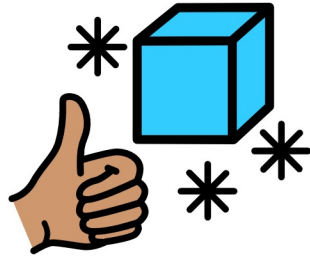

"Blessed are those who have not seen me,

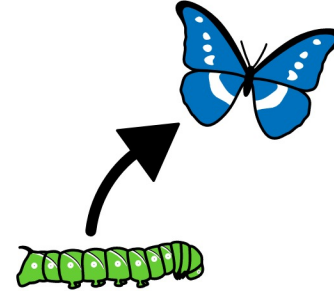

but still have believed", Jesus said.
