Philippians 2:4 (NIRV)

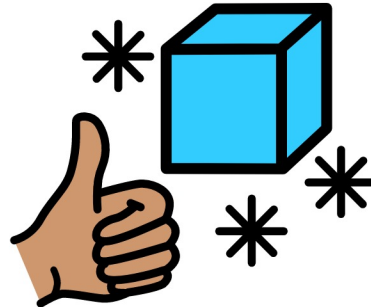

None of you

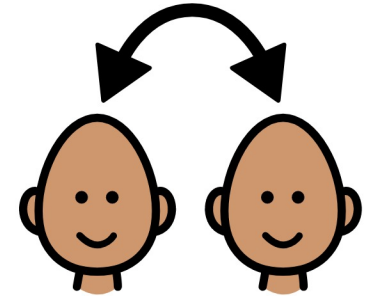

should look out

just for your own good.

Each of you

should also look out for the good of others.

When Jesus first started His ministry, His cousin, John the Baptist was the first one to point Him out.

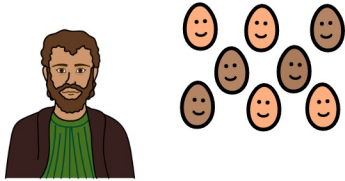

God gave a special sign to John the Baptist. He saw the Holy Spirit come down from heaven like a dove.

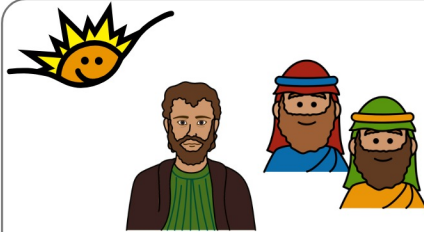

The spirit remained on Jesus. He was God's chosen one.

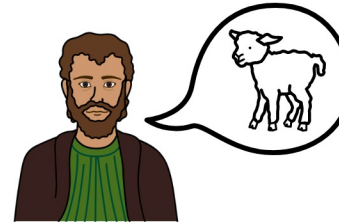

People had been waiting for the rescuer God had promised.

John the Baptist wanted to make sure that the people following him didn't miss out on following The One.

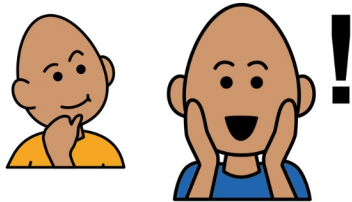

The next day John was hanging out with 2 of his disciples - Andrew and John. John the Baptist pointed Jesus out to them.

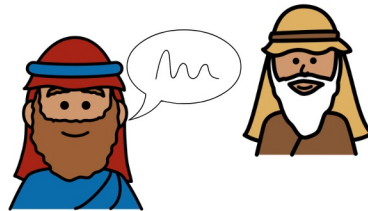

"Look, the Lamb of God", John the Baptist said.

Andrew and John went to catch up with Jesus and spent the rest of the day with Him.

Andrew and John were drawn to Jesus. They were convinced and amazed by Him.

Andrew ran to tell his brother Simon.

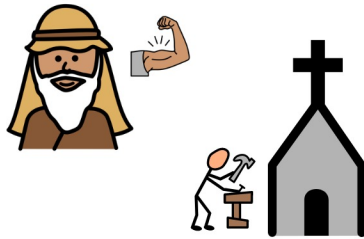

Andrew took Simon to meet Jesus and Jesus saw right into his heart.

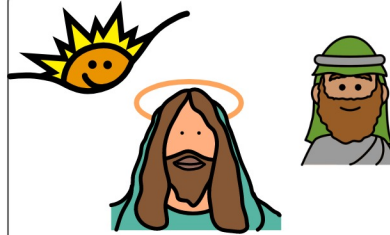

Jesus said, " You are Simon, son of John - you will be called Peter."

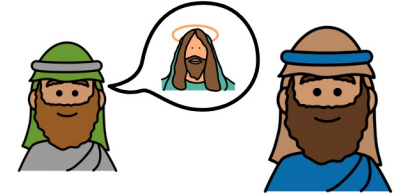

Peter means "rock".

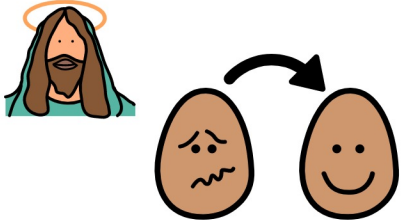

Peter would go on to be solid and strong as a rock in building the early church.

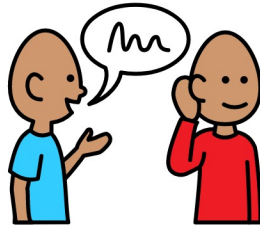

The next day, Jesus called a man named Philip to follow Him.

Philip couldn't contain the news and found his friend Nathaniel to tell him about Jesus.

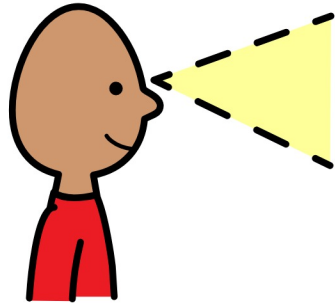

Wherever Jesus went people were changed.

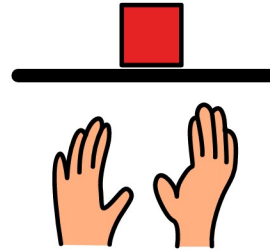

And people wanted to tell others about it.
