Philippians 2:5 (NIrV)

As you deal with one another,

you should think

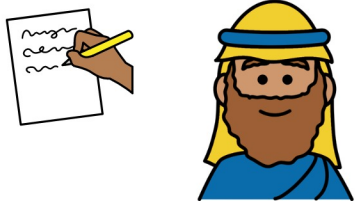

and act

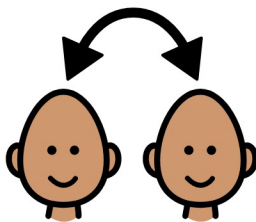

as Jesus did.

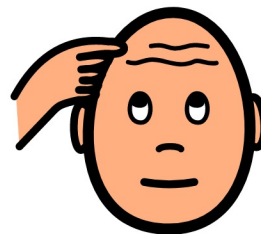

KC June 1, 2025 Pg. 2

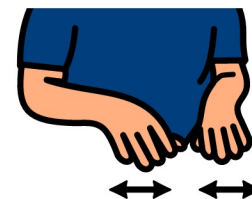

Paul wrote a letter to the Philippians because he had a deep desire to see them become more like Jesus.

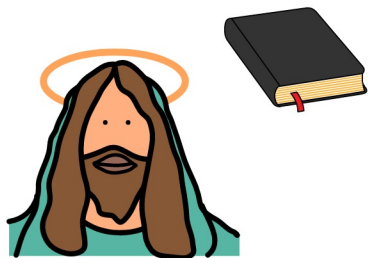

Paul gave them incredible wisdom on how to treat each other.

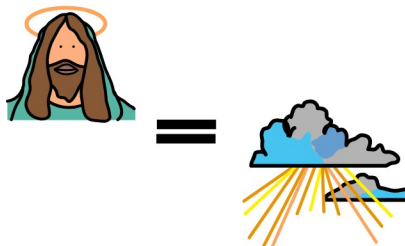

"As you deal with one another, you should think

and act

as Jesus did." - Philippians 2:5

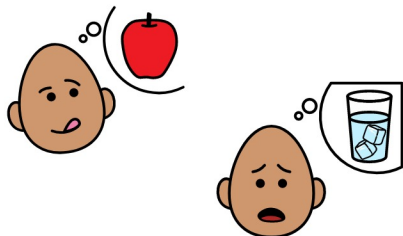

In His very nature, Jesus was God. Jesus was equal with God, but He didn't take advantage of that fact.

Jesus took the nature of a servant. He was made just like human beings.

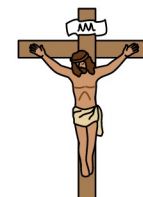

He chose to be hungry, thirsty,

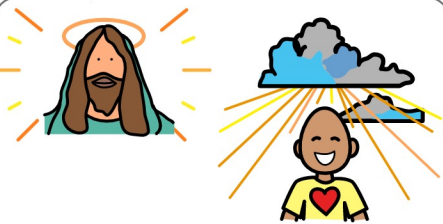

to become exhausted, misunderstood, and face ridicule.

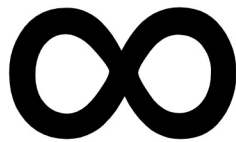

Paula wrote "Jesus was humble and obeyed God completely.

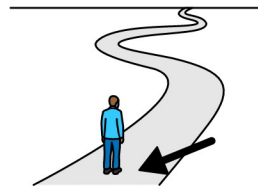

He did this even though it led him to His death. Jesus gave His own life to take the consequences of our sins."

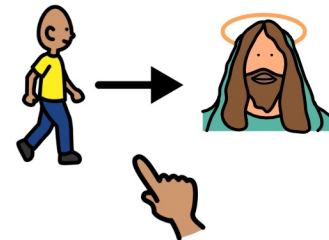

When Jesus returned to life, He made it possible for us to be restored to relationship and live forever with God.

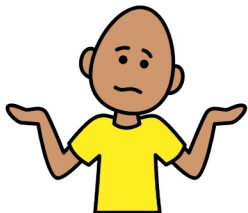

Learning to live like Jesus takes a lifetime,

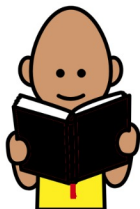

You can start or restart the journey many times.

The first step is to simply choose to follow Jesus.

How do you get to know Jesus?

1- Start by discovering the amazing things Jesus did by reading or listening to the Gospels.

2- Spend time with Jesus by sitting quietly with Him.

3- Gather with friends who love Jesus.

Over time, you will become more and more like Jesus on the inside.
