Philippians 2:5 (NIrV)

As you deal with one another,

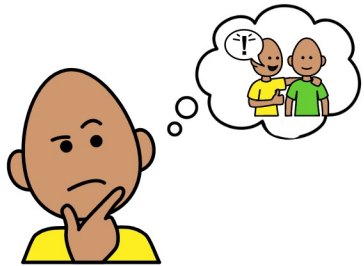

you should think

and act

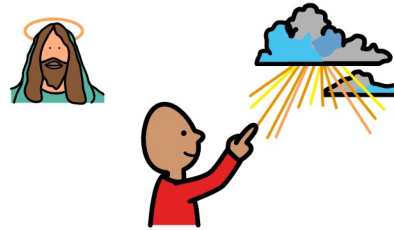

as Jesus did.

How can we encourage one another?

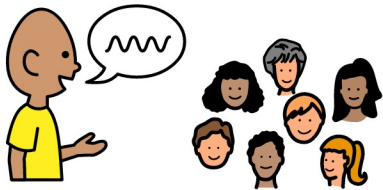

In Hebrews, we read about the amazing work Jesus has done for us.

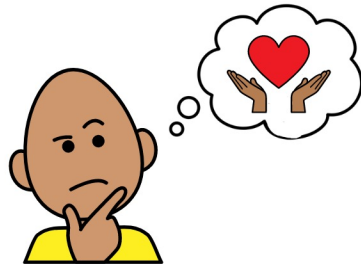

Because of Jesus, we can be a friend with the God of the entire universe and ask for help at any time.

We can live with so much confidence knowing how deeply Jesus loves us and that God is always with us.

And we can share this with the people around us.

Let us consider how we can stir up one another to love.

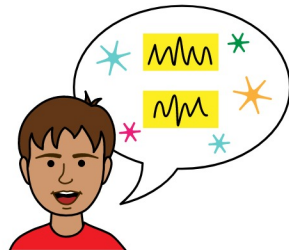

According to Hebrews, you can influence your friends and the people around you to choose love.

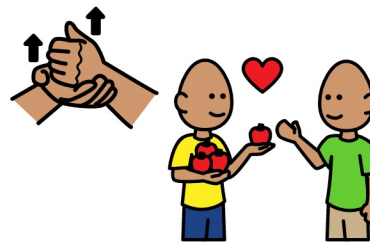

The best way to do this is by showing love yourself.

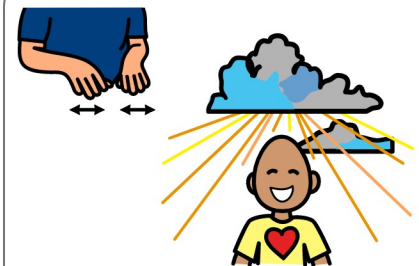

Choose to be kind to others. When you do that, you are making it easier for others to choose kindness too.

You can also stir up others to love with your words.

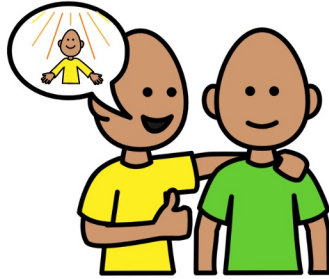

Let us help one another to do good works.

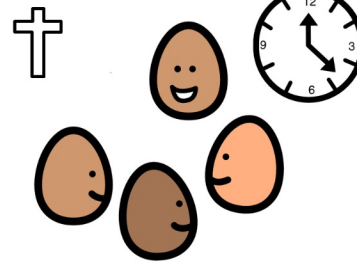

A good work is any action that shows God's love to others.

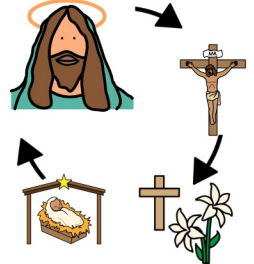

Let us not give up
meeting together.

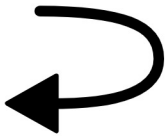

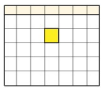

Let us encourage one another
with words of hope.

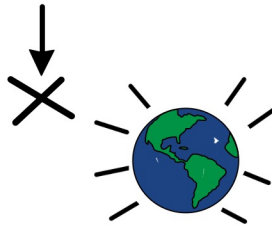

We are called to spend time
with others that know Jesus.

Jesus lived, died, and rose again for us.

One day, Jesus will return and God will make everything right again.

But for now, we live in the middle of a story.

There is a lot of brokenness in
the world,

but we can bring hope when we encourage each other and allow God to work through us to change the world around us.
