Psalms 56:3 (NIRV)

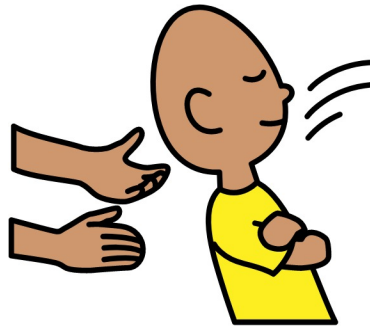

When

I'm afraid,

I put my trust

in you.

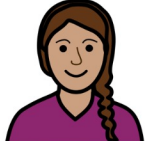

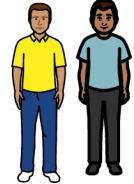

During the time of The Judges there was a lot of wars and uncertainty in the world.

During this time, a woman named Naomi and her husband, Elimelech lived in Bethlehem. A great famine struck the land and there was not enough food.

Naomi, her husband and 2 sons left for the land of Moab.

During their time in Moab, Naomi's sons married 2 women named Orpha and Ruth.

Sadly, Naomi's husband died and later, both of her sons died as well. Naomi was left alone with her daughter-in-laws.

One day, Naomi heard that God once again provided food in her homeland, Bethlehem. So she packed up and started back home with Ruth and Orpha.

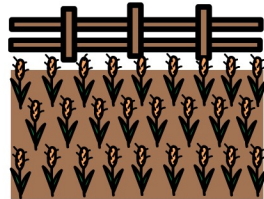

But as they set out, Naomi spoke about letting the women go and starting over without her. Orpha went on her way.

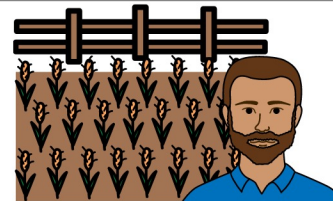

Ruth refused to go and followed Naomi to Bethlehem. Ruth loved her and chose to be brave.

Once they arrived in Bethlehem, life was not easy for Ruth & Naomi. At the time, there weren't many ways women could earn money.

Ruth went out to the fields to pick up the grain that was left.

Ruth went to the field of Boaz, a relative of Naomi. The worker told Boaz all about Ruth's kindness to Naomi and Boaz was impressed.

He was kind to Ruth. As relative of Naomi, Boaz had a responsibility to help take care of them and after a time, Boaz and Ruth were married.

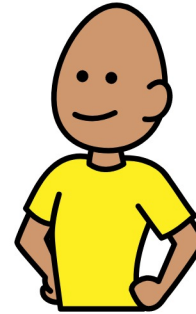

They had a baby boy.
Everyone was filled with joy.
