Isaiah 40:31 (NirV)

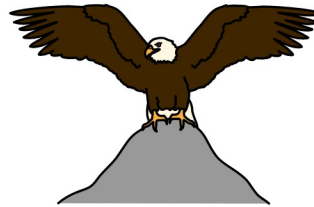

Those who trust

in the Lord will receive new strength.

They will fly as high as eagles.

They will run

not get tired.

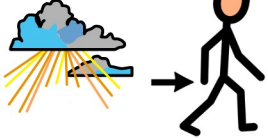

They will walk

and not grow weak.

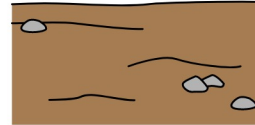

KC November 2 2025 Pg. 2

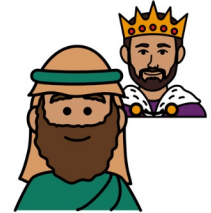

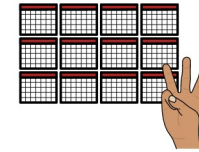

King Ahab had lead the people away from God.

God sent the prophet Elijah to declare that no rain would fall on the land until Elijah said so.

The crops all died and the people of Israel became desperate.

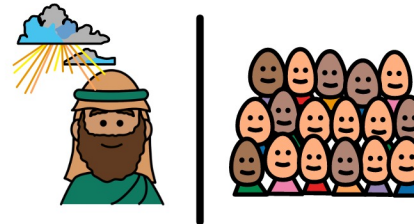

After more than 3 years, God sent Elijah to confront Ahab.

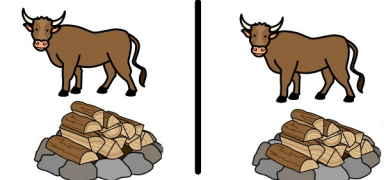

Ahab gathered the prophets of his false gods and met Elijah at Mount Carmel. A huge crowd of Israelites came to watch.

Elijah asked the people how long was it going to take for them to make up their minds about the One and Only God.

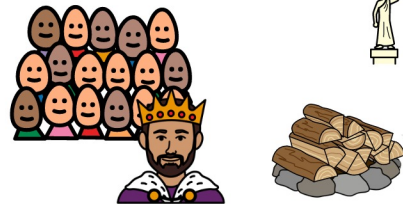

Elijah was the only one of the Lord's prophets left. Baal had 450 prophets.

Elijah asked them to get 2 bulls. Baal's prophets were to cut one up and put it on the wood, but not set it on fire. Elijah would do the same.

The prophets were to pray to Baal and Elijah would pray to the Lord. The God who answered by sending fire would be The One and Only God.

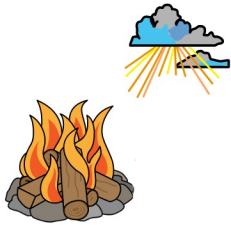

The prophets of Baal prepared the offering and prayed to Baal. Nothing happened.

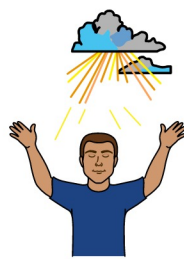

Now it was Elijah's turn. He used 12 stones to build an altar to the Lord, dug a ditch around it and placed the firewood on top along with the bull as an offering.

Elijah had 4 large jars of water poured over the altar 3 times.

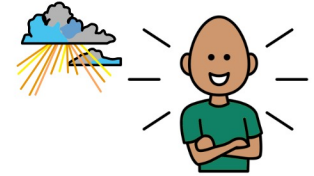

Elijah called out to God. The fire of the Lord came down and it burned up the sacrifice, wood and stones.

The Israelites bowed and worshiped before the Lord.

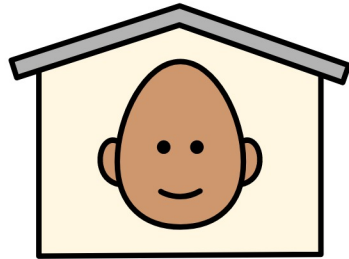

Elijah told Ahab that he could hear the sound of heavy rain. That same night, heavy rain came down and the drought was over.

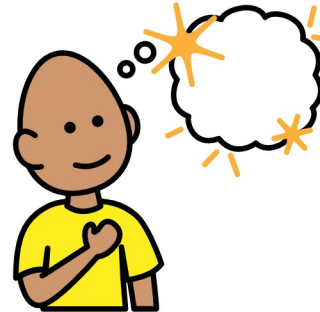

Elijah acted in confidence that God was with him and God did what seemed impossible sending fire from heaven and following up with rain.
