Proverbs 16:16 (NIRV)

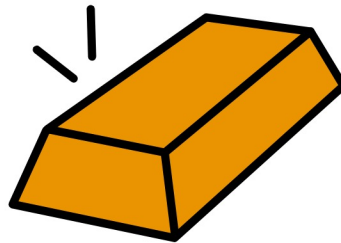

It is much better

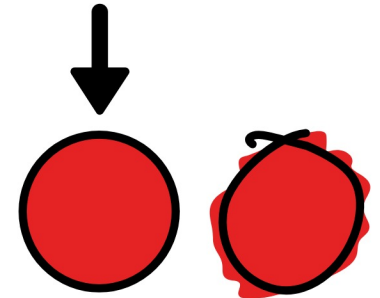

to get

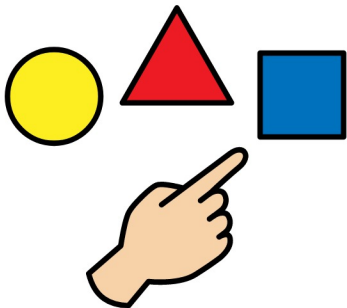

wisdom

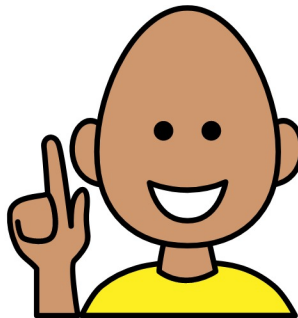

than gold.

It is much better

to choose understanding than silver.

Solomon was quite young when he became King. He knew he needed God's help to rule well.

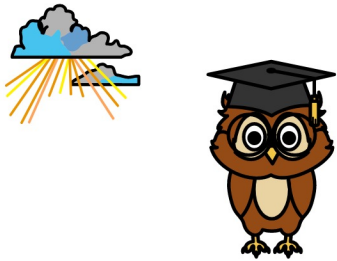

Solomon traveled to Gibeon to worship God. There he offered 1,000 burnt offerings in the altar to honor God.

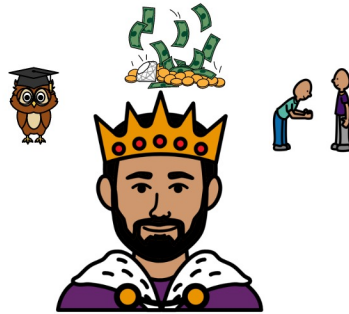

Later that night, God appeared to Solomon in a dream. "Ask for anything you want me to give you?", said the Lord.

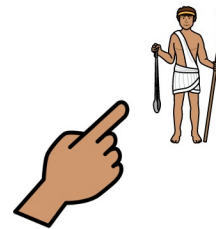

Solomon asked for a heart that understood so that he could rule over God's people and tell the difference between right and wrong.

God was pleased with Solomon asking for wisdom.

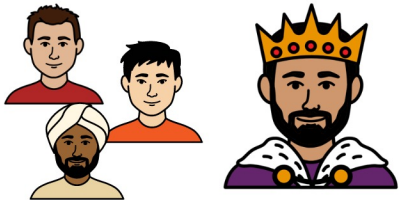

God gave Solomon wisdom, wealth and honor.

God told Solomon to obey His laws and commands just like his father David had done and He would let him live a long time.

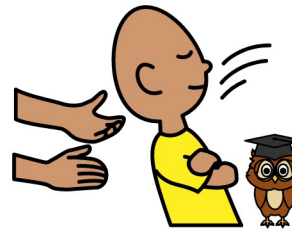

Solomon became wealthy and ruled with wisdom. He built a beautiful temple for God.

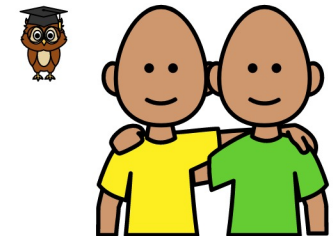

Foreign leaders came to visit Solomon and to see the amazing things he had done. Many of these visits were recorded in the Book of Proverbs in the Bible.

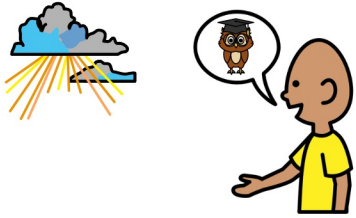

When you read Proverbs you will discover wisdom about how to use your words.

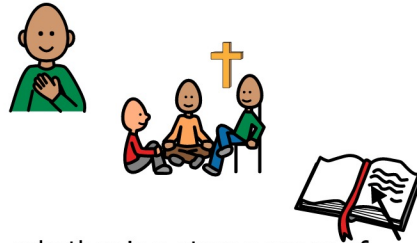

You will find wisdom about where to place your trust.

Proverbs holds the wisdom about how to be a good friend.

We can ask for wisdom whenever we need it and we can trust that God will give us that wisdom, whether is a strong sense of direction, wisdom from others that follow God or through the Scriptures.
