Training the body

has some value.

But being godly has value in every way.

It promises help

for the life you are now living

and the life to come.

Matthew 7:24-27

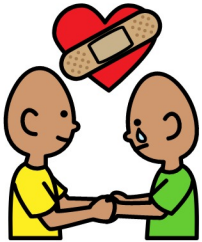

Wherever Jesus went, a crowd followed. One day Jesus went up on a mountain and began to teach about God's Kingdom and how we can live in a way that honors God. These teachings are known as The Sermon in the Mount.

Jesus taught how we can shine God's light to the people around us.

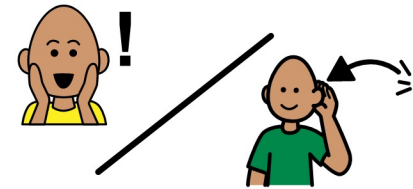

He explained how important it is to forgive and how we shouldn't place focus on money or possessions, but instead gather riches in heaven.

Jesus spoke about loving your enemies and living free from worry.

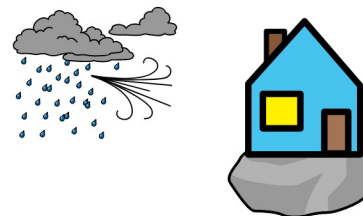

The crowds were amazed by the things that Jesus said, but Jesus knew how important it was for the people to hear His words, but to put them into action. So Jesus finished teaching with a vivid word picture.

"Everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock.

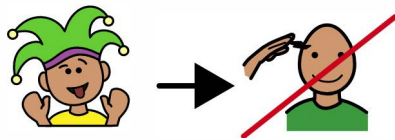

The wind rises and rain comes, but the house has a strong foundation on the rock and it stands firm. The wise man stays safe and dry.

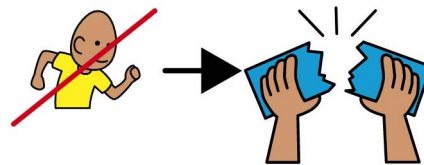

But everyone who hears my words and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man. He builds his house on the sand.

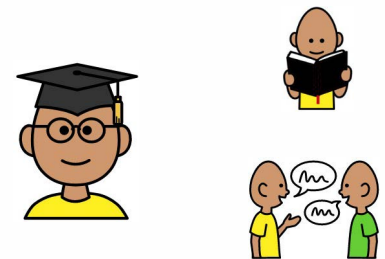

But when the wind and water come, the house will crumble and fall", Jesus said.

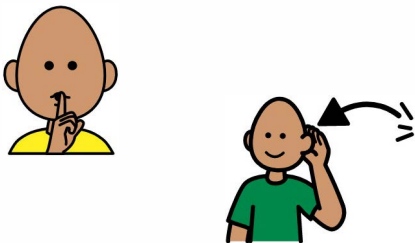

Foolish people may hear what God says, but it doesn't sink in.

They don't put it into action so when tough times come, things fall apart.

Wise people practice truly hearing what God says - reading God's Word, talking to people who love Jesus and taking time to be quiet and listen to God's voice.

And then, they ask God to help them do what God says when difficult times show up.
