John 13:34 (NIRV)

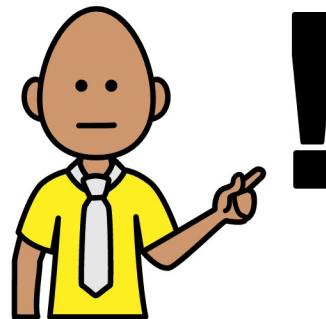

I give you a new command.

Love

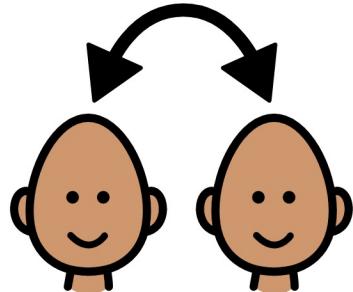

one another.

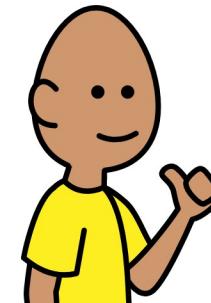

You must

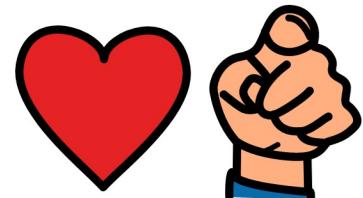

love

one another,

just as I have loved you.

Nicodemus snuck out at night to see Jesus because he didn't want anyone to see him asking questions.

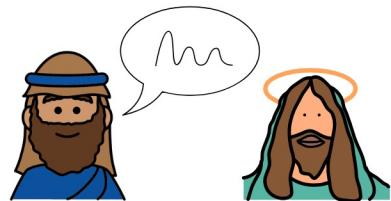

Nicodemus was part of the Jewish ruling council and a Pharisee.

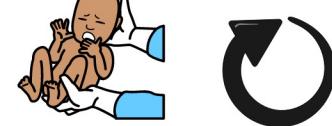

Pharisees believed following rules would make them right with God, but Nicodemus had seen Jesus do amazing things, miracles.

One night, Nicodemus came to Jesus and said: "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher that has come from God."

Jesus told Nicodemus no one can see God's kingdom, unless they are born again.

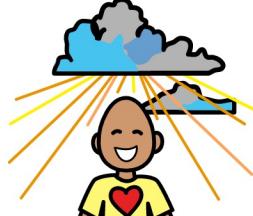

Jesus was talking about something spiritual, not physical.

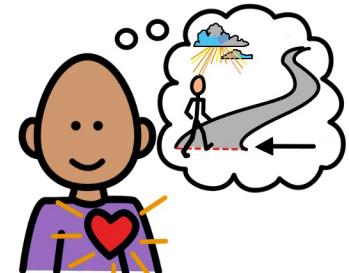

Jesus said: "No one can enter God's kingdom unless they are born with water and the spirit".

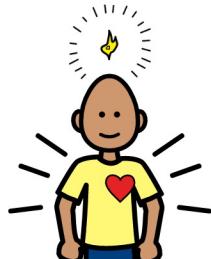

You can't see the Holy Spirit, but we can see how people change when God's spirit fills their heart.

Jesus was showing Nicodemus that following rules isn't what changes us. God's love does.

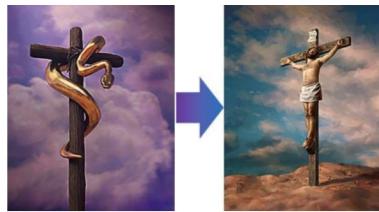

Being born again means starting fresh inside with God's help.

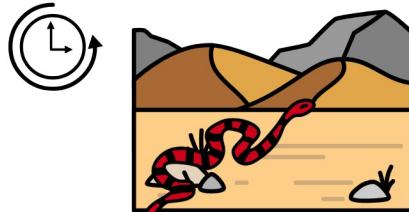

It means letting God's spirit makes us new - forgiven and full of His love.

Then, Jesus said: "The Son of Man must be lifted up just like Moses lifted up the bronze snake in the desert".

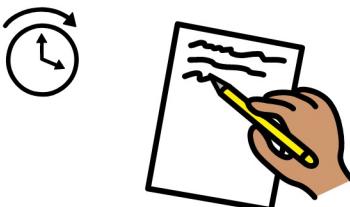

Way back when the Israelites were wandering in the desert poisonous snakes went into their camp.

God told Moses to make a bronze snake and lift it up on a pole. Anyone who looked at it was healed.

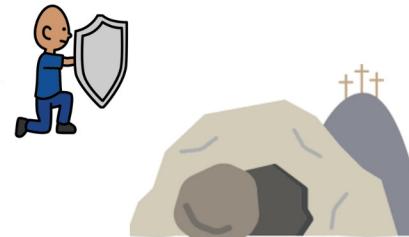

Jesus was using that story as a picture. One day He would be lifted up on the cross and everyone who believes in Him would have eternal life.

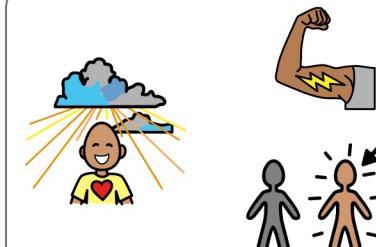

Later, Jesus' friend John wrote: "God so loved the world, that He gave His one and only Son.

Anyone who believes in Him would not die, but will have eternal life". John 3:16

Nicodemus later defended Jesus and helped place His body in the tomb.

Nicodemus learned that God's love is powerful and it can make us all new.
